

KONICA MINOLTA

SIMPLER, SMARTER IT HELP DESK SERVICE AND SUPPORT

WITH KONICA MINOLTA

People are your most important asset. To ensure they operate at peak performance, they require a responsive, expert IT help desk. One that offers flexible access, rapid response with very high rate of first-time fix. Scalability and specialist knowledge when required. And improved user satisfaction and increased productivity.

Giving Shape to Ideas

“support that can flex with your changing business needs, for a more efficient, cost-effective service”

The modern Konica Minolta IT Helpdesk as a Service enables you to streamline your operations, removing the burden of managing a large helpdesk internally. Our ISO-accredited IT helpdesk comprises a team of certified, experienced individuals providing first, second, and third line support for your end users, to a set of pre-determined service level agreements.

Crucially, you only pay for what you need, saving valuable time and resources on training, expensive ticket systems, overhead support and infrastructure costs.

Whether it is scalability you need, support that can flex with your changing business needs, or a more efficient, cost-effective way of supporting end users, Konica Minolta can help.
